Camp for rent?

We've had a couple of people inquire about vacation camps available to rent on Togus Pond or Stream. If you have a place to that you would rent please let us know and we'll try and let people know if they ask us.

Hello Neighbors,

As you see from this newsletter, the Association will hold its next meeting on February 13th at Fox Glen. This will be an important and interesting meeting. Our featured speaker will be Maggie Shannon, Executive Director of the Congress of Lake Associations (COLA). Kim Silsby, our newest Representative to the Maine State Legislature is also planning to attend and I'm sure would be happy to respond to any questions that you may have for her.

The business meeting will be largely used to get input from members for the re-writing of the WLA by-laws which are currently very out of date and don't reflect how we now operate, some 60 or 70 years from when they were first written. We'll have an important report out from the Governmental Affairs Committee related to its meeting with representatives of the local road associations. I'll also be reporting out on the results of our legal consultation that was requested at our last meeting.

On top of the business we have, there will be another of those terrific pot luck dinners, a chance to share a glass of your beverage of choice with your friends and neighbors and maybe even take home some cash from the raffle. You can do all this and even be back home in time to watch some prime time TV!

I hope to see you at the meeting.

Pat Williams
President, WLA

What to do when the ice is unsafe! Read this it could save a life.

With a winter like we've had so far and with the ice conditions we've experienced it seemed like a good time to get out some information about cold water survival. Anyone who lives on or near lakes that freeze should be prepared.

The following website contains three videos with instructions on what to do when someone goes through the ice. They were made by Dr. Gordon Giesbrecht, who is a professor of Thermophysiology at the University of Manitoba.

Check them out at: www.yukonman.com/cold_water.asp
